

YOUR BRAND, OUR PACKAGING EXPERTISE.

From screen printing to custom containers, McConnell Labs offers a wide selection of services to make your brand shine both inside and outside the bottle.

1 ● Select your formulation.

Choose from our wide selection of McConnell Labs stock formulations or make your own custom modifications. McConnell Labs can replicate most colors and characteristics of other products on the market. Be sure to retain the lot numbers from your samples to ensure order accuracy.

2 ● Choose how you want your product packaged.

Our 3 options include:

1. Ship your product in bulk. Your products ship in bulk in product sizes from one gallon buckets to 55 gallon drums. Price breaks are available on most products at 5 gallons, 20 gallons and 55 gallons upon request. See Appendix A for bulk pricing.

2. Provide your own containers. We provide the product and filling. McConnell Labs has a variety of filling equipment compatible with most bottles and jars on the market. Simply ship your packaging to us, and we'll take care of the sticky part. We also can provide boxing services including inserting your bottles into retail unit-boxes, shrink wrapping and building your custom kits or bundles. See Appendix B for customer-supplied container pricing. Decoration services are extra.

3. Let us supply the product, the container and the filling.

McConnell Labs has a variety of in-stock jars and bottles to fit your price point and delivers turn-key service. If we don't stock it, we can help you source it. Our service to you includes using our numerous industry contacts to help you find the containers and labels you require at the best price possible. See Appendix C for stock-container pricing. Premium jars and decoration are extra.

3 • Let's decorate.

Our decoration options include:

1. Labeling. McConnell Labs can apply labels you provide or supply them for you. We work with leading label manufacturers to deliver professional labels with options including metallic finishes, barcoding and embossing. The options are endless, and we'll help guide you through every step of the process. Label pricing varies widely based on the numbers of labels purchased, size and type of label and number of different labels being purchased. We'll use our expertise to find a solution that exceeds your design and budget expectations.

2. Screen Printing. When ordering 3,000 or more jars or bottles, screen printing is an affordable way to make your brand shine. Choose from an unlimited number of colors and metallic finishes. Expect to pay around $0.12 per color and a one-time artwork charge of $99 per color.

3. Foil Sealing. Say goodbye to sticky, leaky jars with our attractive foil seals. $0.20 per jar.* more for larger jars.
